

City Colleges of Chicago and Citibank presented certificates of completion to five graduates of the "Professional Bank Tellers and Beyond" program. As a result of the program, each student was hired as a teller at Citibank with a salary of $27,000 a year and benefits. Standing from left to right are Chancellor Wayne Watson, John Herod, Bank Teller Instructor (Wright College), Nancy Bellew, Workforce Training, (Wright College), Cynthia Clontz, Dean of Continuing Education, (Wright College), Jose Orozco (student), Sandra Burnett (student), Kena Daniels (student), and Leslie Williams (student).

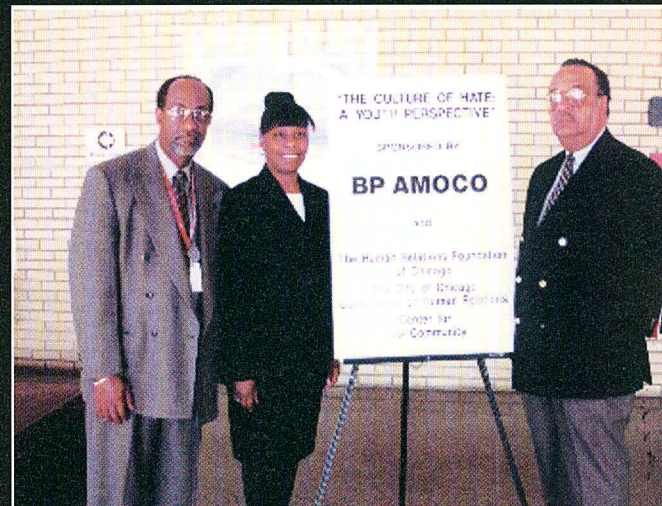

Malcolm X College's Allied Health Department Instructors Luc Elie, Laboratory Coordinator for the Medical Laboratory Technician Program and Marjorie Cephus, Laboratory Coordinator of the Biology Department demonstrates the many uses of Malcolm X's newly acquired human simulator is used by eight different Medical Programs at Malcolm X College. Purchased at a cost of $400,000.

Members of the Kalapadama Dance Academy perform traditional Hindu dances at the International Festival of Arts held in October at Truman College. The festival also included performances by the Tamburitza Dance Group, performing Croatian dances, and the University Bible Fellowship Orchestra, as well as performances by Truman College students.

The 1999-2000 Distinguished Professor award was presented to: (l-r) Training Specialist Phyllis Brooks, (Dawson Technical Institute-Kennedy-King College), Professor Mohammad Vali Siadat, (Daley College), Professor Geraldine Williams, (Malcolm X College), Director Lizzette Richardson, (Malcolm X College), Professor Barbara Washington, (Kennedy-King College), Professor Mel Livatino (Truman College), Professor Maureen Mullally, (Washington College) and Professor John Scoubis, (Wright College).

Dean Randall Johnson and Dr. Feranda Williams of Malcolm X College greet Commissioner Clarence Wood of the Department of Human Relations Mayor's Office seminar on the "Culture of Hate-A-Youth Perspective", held for area High Schools at Malcolm X College BP Amoco sponsored a very successful and impressive event.

Hospitality Culinary Showcase Diner

City Colleges of Chicago and the Mayor's Office will sponsor a Showcase Dinner, February 16, 2000. Students from Kennedy-King College's Washburne Culinary School and Harold Washington College's Hospitality Program will highlight their talents to industry executives.

